

Leica SmartWorx Viva configuration for SmartNet Multi-GNSS

Introduction

From August 2018, HxGN SmartNet GB offers nationwide GNSS real-time corrections now supporting additionally Galileo and BeiDou satellite constellations.

Pre-requisites:

Corresponding GNSS option(s) licensed on GS receiver eg. Galileo and/or BeiDou

Step	Instruction	Screenshots
1	From the SmartWorx Viva Home screen, open [4] User [5] About Leica Viva GS Sensor tab scroll down Ensure Galileo and/or BeiDou are active or contact your Leica Geosystems supplier to purchase required options

Overview

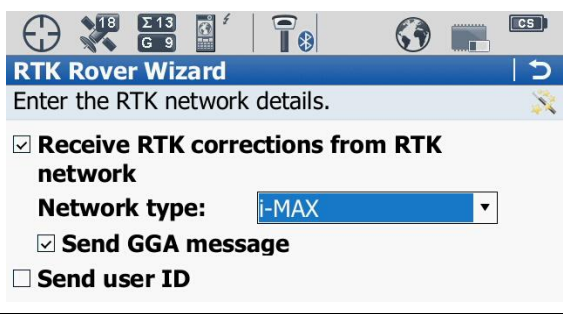

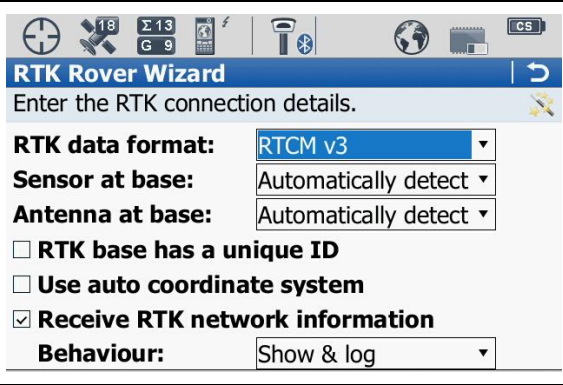

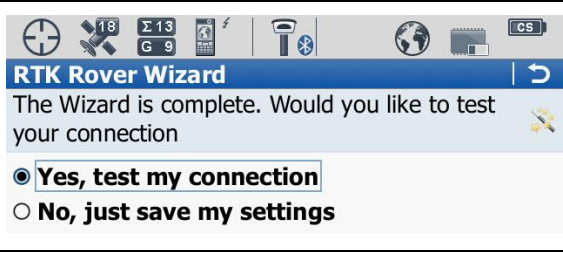

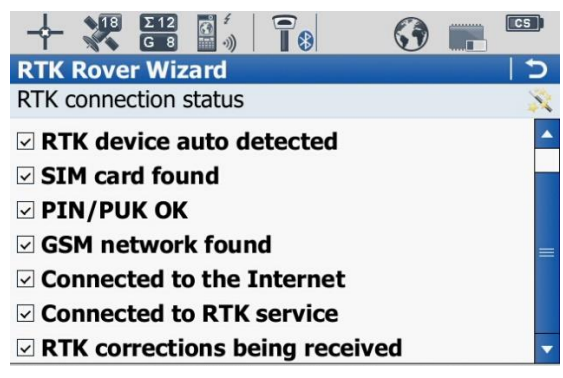

Change the SmartNet server Port to 9301

Change the SmartNet server Mount Point to MSM_iMAX¹

Change the SmartNet Reference Network type to i-MAX¹

Step	Instruction	Screenshots
2	From the SmartWorx Viva Home screen, open [3] Instrument
3	[1] GPS settings...
4	[1] RTK rover wizard
5	Select Edit an existing profile and proceed with [F1] Next

6	Select your SmartNet profile. If you have multiple, then you will need to repeat this process for each of them. [F1] Next
7	Proceed through the wizard by pressing [F1] Next, 7 times to reach the RTK server page
8	Select Edit a server and proceed with [F1] Next
9	Select RTK server to edit and proceed with [F1] Next
10	Edit Port to 9301 and proceed with [F1] Next
11	If connected to the internet, choose Select mountpoint from source table and select MSM_iMAX and proceed with [F1] Next Proceed to step 13 If not connected to the internet, select Enter mountpoint manually and proceed with [F1] Next
12	Enter MSM_iMAX and proceed with [F1] Next

13	Select the Network type: i-MAX (Appropriate to the Mountpoint selected) and proceed with [F1] Next
14	Ensure RTCM v3 is selected for the RTK data format and proceed with [F1] Next
15	If connected to the GS receiver and the internet, it is possible to test the connection by selecting Yes, test my connection and proceed with [F1] Next
16	Observe successful connections resulting in RTK initialised (denoted by ) (Two ticks signify SmartCheck) and proceed with [F1] Next
17	The RTK rover wizard is completed. Optionally disconnect after finishing the wizard. Proceed with [F1] Finish

For subsequent use, connect to SmartNet as usual by Starting the RTK Stream and benefit from additional satellites in the service.

¹ Nearest and VRS services are also available.